Gross Direct Premiums Written for Auto
(Motor) Insurance, 2019, 2020, 2021 and 2022:
Top 200 Insurer Groups Worldwide

Insuramore's analysis of gross direct premiums written (GDPW) for auto (motor) insurance of insurer (carrier) groups in 2022 – with comparative data also included for 2019, 2020 and 2021 – covers up to the top 200 groups worldwide by this measure. Together, these 200 groups accounted for an estimated 84.9% of total global GDPW for this line in 2022.

Auto (motor) insurance is defined as insurance for motorized vehicles acquired by any type of buyer (i.e. private, commercial, public sector and not-for-profit) including cover for cars, motor cycles, RVs (recreational vehicles), LCVs (light commercial vehicles) and HGVs (heavy goods vehicles), and for both liability and vehicle damage but excluding niche cover types such as vehicle service contracts (extended warranties), GAP protection, scratch and dent protection, tyre insurance etc..

For insurer groups with financial year ends that occur in a month other than December, Insuramore presents data that includes a part of 2023 (e.g. for the 12 months to the end of March 2023 for many Japan-based groups).

In 2022, the top 200 insurer groups by this measure segmented by type and by home region as shown in the charts overleaf.
