Definition of “MGA, MGU and cover-holder revenues”

MGA, MGU and cover-holder revenues are defined as fees and commissions earned from underwriting / program administration (and related activities, such as claims management) by entities with the authority to underwrite or bind insurance (or reinsurance) risk in any class and that do this exclusively or mainly on behalf of unaffiliated carrier partners. Such entities that are insurer-owned and that are believed to place risks exclusively or mainly with parent or sister underwriters (i.e. affiliated entities) are excluded from the analysis. Revenues from wholesale or other broking / agency activity that do not meet this definition of MGA, MGU or cover-holder business are also not in scope.

In 2022, the top 300 MGA / MGU / cover-holder groups by this measure segmented by ownership type and by home region as shown in the charts overleaf.
